

If you've ever had an emergency call interrupted by tele marketer you would understand how wrong they are, and destructive. It has happend to me when my daughter was missing. I'm on the no call list and I want it that way! I can't make my number not listed, if someone I love is missing and may call in distress at any time.